

LARGE AUDIENCE APPLAUDS "NIGHT MUST FALL" DRAMA

and Charlotte Millard, as Mrs. Terence, the outspoken and energetic cook who supplies most of the comedy of the play, did an outstanding piece of acting, as did also Betty Mliner as Dora, the lazy and ineffectual maid of all work; Arlo Crowell was excellent as the somewhat stuffy Hubert Laurie, Mortimer Murphy, always good in any role, played the part of a district nurse. The unusual setting, designed and executed by Mortimer Murphy, Otto Krack and the stage committee, with an effective fireplace, designed and built by Martin Lowenfish, assisted by Donald Rose, added greatly to the atmosphere of the play and was applauded both nights as the first curtain rose.

Those who missed seeing "Night Must Fall" last weekend will have an opportunity to enjoy it after the holidays. Two more performances will be given at the Washington Theater on Friday and Saturday evenings, Jan. 9 and 10.

HOSPITAL FUND DRIVE WILL OPEN ON FEBRUARY 6TH

roll community residents for annual hospital association membership; secondly, adequate facilities for nurses, including a modern, up-to-date residence; and thirdly, modernization of the hospital itself with a new operating room, better laboratory arrangement, and addition of 18 more beds to the hospital.

Plans for the proposed additions to the institution were shown the group and they will be shortly on view to the public at campaign headquarters, 60 Cedar Street, Dobbs Ferry. The designer for the proposed project is Walter Scott Jago, well-known New York architect.

Mr. Odquist announced that the advanced gifts committee would start their drive Jan. 1 under Mr. diLustro, general chairman; community and division leaders will meet Jan. 13 to appoint team captains for active community campaigns; special gifts solicitations open Jan. 21 with a dinner, and the final report for this committee is listed as Feb. 4. The final instruction dinner for community and division leaders, team captains and all workers will be held Feb. 5 with the intensive campaign opening Feb. 6. Feb. 29 will be the last day of the fund drive.

NEW PARKING LAW

A week ago Friday, and again this past week, at the recommendation of Alfredo Petruzzi, Highway Commissioner of Ardsley, notices were placed in the cars that were parked on village streets late in the night.

The notices asked that the residents cooperate with the Highway Department by not leaving their cars parked overnight on the highways, to enable the village to properly clear all the streets promptly in the event of a snow fall.

According to an announcement by Commissioner Petruzzi, a noticeable improvement in the situation is evident, and Mr. Petruzzi said, "If the residents will continue to cooperate it certainly will help to make Ardsley a place for better living."

HOME FROM PRINCETON

William R. Alley, Jr., son of Village Trustee and Mrs. William R. Alley of Broadway, arrived home from Princeton University yesterday for a two-week vacation with his family.

HOME FROM SYRACUSE

Miss Greta Reider, student at Syracuse University, will arrive home this weekend to spend the holiday season with her family.

GIVE FASHION SHOW

The World History classes of the Ardsley High School, taught by Clarence Feltes, presented a fashion show Friday afternoon at 2 P. M. in the auditorium.

Pupils paraded costumes of women from 1800 up to the present time—the garments, having been loaned by residents of the village.

MUSIC IN CAFETERIA

Music while they eat in the cafeteria has been assured pupils of Hastings High School after school resumes on Jan. 5.

Arrangements for the entertainment have been completed by the Senior Class which has voted to present the school with the necessary, loud speaker, record player and a supply of records.

The equipment is to be installed during the Christmas recess under the direction of Fred Schmidt, building superintendent.

HOLD PARTY

The Ardsley Gardens Association held its annual Christmas party on Thursday at 8 P. M. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Carson on Short Hill Road.

There was an exchange and a grab bag with Santa Claus, played by one of the members, as chairman.

SEND XMAS BOXES
Fifty boxes containing essentials for school children of Europe were sent out from Hastings High School Tuesday by the school's Junior Red Cross club.
The parcels, each of which included pencils, writing paper, soap, tooth brushes, tooth paste and a rubber ball, went to the Westchester County Red Cross Chapter at White Plains for allocation to the European area.
The project was made possible when Miss Valeri Matriski, finance chairman of the General Organization, found a surplus of $40 remaining from last year's Junior Red Cross account. The club director, Miss Mildred A. Davey, then appointed a committee to handle purchases and additional funds were voluntarily contributed by seventh graders.
